give us the strength to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed, the courage to change the things that can and should be changed, and the wisdom to distinguish one from the other

September 2, I told Mary Elizabeth good-by. She acted like she wanted to cry on my shoulder. I wish she had — it was right touching. I told her how I was going back to a hard place but with her face before me to cheer and strengthen me — and all that sort of stuff.

At the completion of the registration for the ROTC 146 freshmen had registered for the ROTC program, according to the registrar's office. Col. Virgil Foster, as Prof. of Military Science this term, said the number enrolled "will make a very fine unit as far as I'm concerned."

The Freshman is excused, the Junior respected, the Senior pitied, but the sophomore is held in contempt. . . . This sophomore class felt that Davidson College was established for it and that when its college course was finished the work of the College would be done.

There is a growing tendency today to disbelieve all traditions and preconceived ideas until they are satisfactorily proved.
This tendency is growing at Davidson.
